

Open access licence

Using National Brokerage Network materials

We want individuals who are committed to the personalisation of services and the extension of choice and control through self-directed support to use the information provided on this Website on an open access basis.

As publisher of the information included on this Website the National Brokerage Network wants you to be able to use the content, tell others and copy to others electronically without charge providing you agree to the following:

Downloading and distributing materials

You are welcome to download, save, or distribute materials - electronically or on paper - without written permission providing that:

You credit the National Brokerage Network

You use this phrase to credit the National Brokers Network: 'This guide/ or paper/ or document/ or presentation/ etc. was produced by the National Brokerage Network – www.nationalbrokeragenetwork.org.uk

You feature the address of the in Control website:

www.nationalbrokeragenetwork.org.uk and the text is not altered.

The National Brokerage Network is incorporated within the Inclusion Partnership.

Promoting Independence Choice and Control For Disabled and Disadvantaged People

Company No: 05492971

Adapting materials

Local authorities and others setting up or promoting a system of Self-Directed Support may also adapt the materials to fit local situations. You can do this without written permission providing that:

You credit the National Brokerage Network

You use this phrase to credit the National Brokerage Network: 'In producing this guide/ or paper/ or document/ or presentation/ etc, [ANYSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL] acknowledges its adaptation of materials produced by the National Brokerage Network

By downloading, distributing or adapting the National Brokerage Network published material, you are agreeing to these conditions.

In producing this license the National Brokerage Network acknowledges its adaptation of materials produced by in control – www.in-control.org.uk

The National Brokerage Network is incorporated within the Inclusion

Partnership.

Promoting Independence Choice and Control For Disabled and Disadvantaged People
Company No: 05492971